Advisory Committee Requirements: Those selected to serve on the Gila Box Advisory Committee may serve three-year terms beginning on the date of their appointment. Members serve without salary, but are reimbursed for travel and per diem expenses at current rates for government employees.

Privacy Act Statement: The authority to request this information is contained in 5 U.S.C. 301, the Federal Advisory Committee Act, and Part 1784 of Title 43, Code of Federal Regulations. It is used by the appointment officer to determine education, training, and experience related to possible service on an Advisory Council of the Bureau of Land Management. If you are appointed as an advisor, the information will be retained by the appointing official as long as you serve. Otherwise, it will be destroyed or returned (if requested) within 60 days following announcement of the Council appointments. Completion of this form is voluntary. However, failure to complete any or all items will inhibit fair evaluation of your qualifications, and could result in the nominee not receiving full consideration for appointment.
